

House Resolution No. 185

Whereas, from time to time the members of the Missouri House of Representatives are called upon to honor remarkable Show-Me State couples who have experienced the good fortune of success in marriage, a most delightful task which this legislative body embraces with great enthusiasm; and

Whereas, the union of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Younger, residents of Elmo, Missouri, is characterized by their enduring affection and serves as a glorious illustration of a prosperous marriage; and

Whereas, Charles and Laurel Lee Younger commemorated the joyous occasion of their Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary with a card shower on December 21, 2004; and

Whereas, as they proudly marked this splendid milestone in their life, Charles and Laurel Lee Younger undoubtedly looked back with satisfaction upon all that has transpired since they pledged their eternal love to one another and began their long, joyful walk down life's path; and

Whereas, it was six wondrous decades ago that Charles and Laurel Lee Younger joined their hands, their hearts, and their lives together in a solemn nuptial ceremony on December 21, 1944; and

Whereas, over the course of the past six decades, Charles and Laurel Lee Younger have had the pleasure of watching their family grow to include their children and their spouses, Tom Younger of Olathe, Kansas, Nina and Ken Wills of Tulsa, Oklahoma, and Rex D. and Peggy Younger of Clearmont, Missouri; four grandsons, Kris Younger of Columbia, Kyle Younger of Overland Park, Kansas, and Casey Wills and Jessica and Ryan Wills of Tulsa, Oklahoma; and one great-granddaughter, Allison Wills; and

Whereas, Charles and Laurel Lee Younger have distinguished themselves as a remarkable couple, whose sixty years of shared joy and contentment so beautifully illustrate the strength, grace, and splendor of the lasting marriage bond:

Now, therefore, be it resolved that we, the members of the Missouri House of Representatives, Ninety-third General Assembly, join unanimously in extending our most hearty congratulations to Charles and Laurel Lee Younger upon the joyous occasion of their Sixtieth Wedding Anniversary and in further wishing them continued happiness in the years to come; and

Be it further resolved that the Chief Clerk of the Missouri House of Representatives be instructed to prepare a properly inscribed copy of this resolution for Mr. and Mrs. Charles Younger.
